PAUL TRACY

Paul Tracy has enjoyed an illustrious 22-year racing career, notching his first CART/Champ Car win at the Toyota Grand Prix of Long Beach in 1993. He also took the checkered flag in 2000, 2003 and 2004, tying him with Mario Andretti for second in all-time Toyota Grand Prix of Long Beach wins (4) behind Al Unser Jr.'s six. His 2003 Long Beach win propelled him to six other race wins and the Champ Car series championship that year. The talented Scarborough, Ontario, Canada native has recorded a total of 31 career Indy car victories and 25 pole positions, and he also scored his first open-wheel race victory at Long Beach in 1990 when he won the Firestone Indy Lights support race.
