WALK OF FAME CEREMONY

EMERSON FITTIPALDI

Emerson Fittipaldi, one of the world's most recognized drivers, took second place at the Toyota Grand Prix of Long Beach in 1985 and 1990, and third place in 1980, 1989 and 1992. The Brazilian, who began racing motorcycles at age 14, is a two-time winner of both the Formula One World Championship (1972 and 1974) and the Indianapolis 500 (1989 and 1993). He won the Indy Car World Series Championship in 1989, and has a total of 40 wins across Formula One and Indy cars.
